

Site Rules for ComicConVersation at Baldwinsville Public Library

No smoking or alcohol consumption is allowed on Baldwinsville Library Property.

Weapons & Uniforms:

- Weapons, including firearms and explosives, are banned on Baldwinsville Public Library property, regardless of whether they are functional or not.
- Props that may be confused with real firearms or explosives are also banned on Baldwinsville Public Library property during this event.
- Bows and steel edged weapons are included in this ban. This includes swords, bayonets, shuriken, star knives, other knives except items that are obviously table knives, and any other object made of metal that can hold a sharp edge, regardless of whether it is sharp.
- Projectile devices where a normal shot can pierce the skin are banned on Baldwinsville Public Library property. For example, BB guns and dart guns fall in this category; Nerf® guns do not.
- Costumes that may be confused with local law enforcement uniforms are prohibited during this event.

Anyone wearing a costume similar to local law enforcement uniforms, or anyone in possession of a weapon or item that appears to be a real weapon (including explosives) will be asked to remove the weapon or costume from Baldwinsville Public Library property. If they are seen violating this policy a second time they will be expelled from Library property for the rest of the day.

Lanyards:

- Blue tags indicate volunteers and library staff. Attendees should follow any instructions given by these people in the course of their duties.
- Red tags designate Vendors and Displaying Artists.
- White tags designate all other registered attendees.

Patron Code of Conduct

All attendees must abide by the Baldwinsville Public Library's Patron Code of Conduct, which includes the following (excerpted from the full policy, which is available on our website):

Patrons of the Baldwinsville Public Library must

- Respect the rights of other patrons and staff.
- Be responsible for the behavior of children they bring to the library.
- Attend to their own belongings. The library is not responsible for belongings left unattended.
- Wear proper attire, including shirts and shoes.

Behaviors not permitted on library property include the following:

- Harassing patrons or staff or engaging in other disruptive behaviors
- Using loud, obscene, threatening or abusive language and gestures
- Rollerblading, skateboarding, or blocking access to any doorway
- Bringing animals into the library, except for those required for disabled persons
- Engaging in illegal activities, including but not limited to the use or sale of illegal drugs, theft, sexual harassment or misconduct, defacing of library materials and/or property, copying of software protected by copyright, and displaying sexually suggestive objects or pictures that may be a violation of state and federal law governing obscenity and displays of sexual material.
