

SECTION XVII.
FAX

The Baldwinsville Public Library offers fax service for patrons during all hours that the library is open.

The Library will not assume responsibility for the content of faxed materials. The patron warrants that the use of the fax is a legal use.

Charges are subject to change at the discretion of the Library Board.

The fax operator will attempt to send the fax, but is not responsible if unable to transmit. A maximum of five attempts will be made.

Incoming faxes will be held for seven days and then discarded.

The fax number of the Baldwinsville Public Library may not be used as the official fax number of any organization.

Fax service may be denied at the discretion of the Library Director, if there are any violations in this policy.
